

HIGH SCHOOL HISTORY OF ART, FINE ARTS & CRAFTS TEACHER for September 2010 FULL TIME POSITION

Requirements Teacher with an undergraduate degree from a recognized university and a Waldorf Teacher Certification credential required. Experienced teacher preferred.

The successful applicant will be joining an enthusiastic faculty and energetic community. Vancouver is home to several Anthroposophical study groups, Anthroposophical doctors and therapists and a Christian Community church. The temperate climate provides year-round activities such as skiing, hiking and biking. Vancouver is known as one of the most beautiful cities in the world, one of the best places to live, and is a well-known multi-cultural centre with art galleries, museums, theatres, restaurants, colleges and universities.

Our school, now in its 40th year, offers a full Early Childhood to Grade Twelve program. Our anthroposophically designed Early Childhood Centre houses our Early Childhood programs. Our current site development plan includes completing the construction of the remaining buildings on one campus, including the Grade School, High School and Performing Hall. We operate on a three-fold governance structure with an Operations Management Committee that oversees the day-to-day operations of the school, and ensures that all issues are carried and resolved appropriately and expeditiously, a Pedagogical Carrying Group and a Committee/Task Groups system that effectively empowers Faculty to participate in the running of the school, a carefully designed administrative structure with developed protocols and procedures intended to support the work of the faculty and that provide friendly and supportive service to the families that seek Waldorf education. We are a full-member of the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America, the Federation of Independent Schools Association in British Columbia, and are fully certified by the British Columbia Ministry of Education. We regularly host Waldorf conferences and speakers, Teacher Training courses offered by the West Coast Institute for Studies in Anthroposophy, and conferences offered by sister Anthroposophical organizations in Vancouver.

Remuneration salary range for a full-time position is CDN $35,000 - $46,000 per annum FTE depending on experience and qualifications. Employee benefits include tuition as a taxable benefit, and an Extended Health Benefits Plan, which includes a Dental Plan, Life Insurance Plan, short and long term disability plan, and other health benefits. We offer assistance with travel costs for interviews with selected candidates and for some costs associated with moving.

Classroom visits, faculty conversations and the interview process require a minimum of three days, preferably Tuesday through Thursday.

Experienced teachers given preferred consideration. Only those selected for interview will be contacted. Please fax resume to (604)985-4948 or email hrc@vws.ca for more information.
